PACKAGING

A Brand's Most Important Marketing Tool

Pouch Design

Pouch Design Indicates Safety, Product Identity, And User Convenience Through A Blend Of Aesthetic And Functional Elements. Key Indicators Include Clear Branding (logos, Colors), Informative Labeling, And Practical Features Like Spouts For Resealability Or Specific Barrier Materials To Maintain Freshness And Shelf Life. The Overall Design Communicates Brand Values, Differentiates The Product From Competitors, And Ensures The Food Remains Safe And Protected During Transport

Types Of Pouch Packaging And Their Indications

- ◆ Stand-up pouches: These have a bottom gusset that allows them to stand on their own, making them ideal for retail shelf display.
- ◆ Flat pouches: These are best for small or slim products. They are designed to lie flat and are often displayed on a tray or peg hook.
- ◆ Spouted pouches: Primarily used for liquids or semi-liquids like juices or sauces, they are designed for easy pouring and often include a reclosable spout for future use.
- ◆ Resealable pouches: Beneficial for larger quantities of items like snacks and dried fruits, these help keep products fresh and prevent waste after opening.

Pouch Branding

Catalogue Design

From Fashion, Jewelry, Technology, Toys, Food, Down To Services, There Are Endless Possibilities For Product Catalogs Out There. And In A Catalog, It Is More Than Just Listing Items In A Systematic Order Because They Must Be Curated, Properly Labeled, And Eye-catching To Encourage Readers Into Purchasing Items Or Availing Services. To Manage That, You Need A Proper Introduction To Over 50 Catalog Templates Not Only To Implement Beautiful Designs But Also To Run An Effective Marketing Strategy.

Catalogue Design

Lubricant Oil Packaging

VISION

To become a leader in the lubricant manufacturing market with a significant regional and global presence.

MISSION

To commit to producing the highest quality of lubricants for automotive, industrial, agriculture, marine, and industries using fully automated processes that are compliant with health and safety policies and regulations.

OUR VALUES

- Quality - Lubrex' footprint and promise.
- Integrity - Striving for continual improvement in operational systems to achieve greater coherence.
- Reliability - Matching our services to customers' expectations every time.
- Team work - Working together towards the same goal.
- Transparency - Applying goodwill and ethics in every aspect of the business.
